TO Charles Perley, Esq.

New York City, New York.

MY DEAR COUSIN,

I have much pleasure in now sending forth my second printed "Genealogical Chart" of the Male Descendants of OUR WIDE-SPREAD FAMILY, and which I take the liberty of dedicating to you. Although I have bestowed much research and labor upon it, and have added about Four Hundred additional names to the Chart published in 1873, still, I know it is not yet perfect. You will observe some blanks that require to be filled up,—the descendants of these families I have not yet been able to find.

I trust that you, and all the descendants of ALLEN PERLEY, will accept of it in as fraternal a spirit as it is now tendered to you; and wherein you find errors or omissions, or can furnish me with any clue to those lost tribes that have wandered wide, you will confer a favor by informing me. Thanking you kindly for the valuable assistance rendered, and cheering encouragement given me,—with all others who have in any measure contributed valuable information towards this work,—

Believe me to be,

Yours ever truly,

GEORGE AUGUSTUS PERLEY.
